Introduction

This project record book has been created specifically for members enrolled in the 4-H Teen Leadership project. Keeping a record book is an important part of the project and will help you set goals, develop an action plan, evaluate your project and determine what you have learned.

What is a 4-H teen leadership project?

A 4-H teen leadership project is for 4-Hers in grades 8 and up. 4-Hers can enroll in a leadership project as a part of their project area club or through the 4-H Teen/Senior Council in their county. In order to take part in the leadership project, you should first discuss your ideas for a specific project for the year with a 4-H leader in your club or in your Teen/Senior Council, to ensure it fits the needs of the club. Working with your 4-H leader, you will develop a plan of action for your project. Throughout the year, you should work in partnership with your 4-H leader to complete and evaluate your project. A more advanced teen leadership project can be done on the county level, working with the County 4-H Staff to plan and run your project.

Ideas for 4-H Teen Leadership Projects

- Teach a new skill to 4-H club members
- Lead activities during club meetings
- Arrange a club field trip
- Organize promotion for your club
- Plan a club recognition event
- Assist with club member recruitment
- Teach public speaking skills to 4-H members
- Teach record keeping skills to 4-H members
- Take leadership for a club event or project at the County Fair (club booth, etc)
- Assist with a club or county animal show or clinic
- Train new club officers
- Write monthly club meeting reports
- Assist 4-H leader with club management such as meeting reminders, phone chain, etc.
- Arrange a club community service project
- Assist with or lead a club fund raising project
- Get involved in 4-H project area advisory councils

Setting Goals for the 4-H Project year

The beginning of the 4-H year is a good time to begin thinking about what you'd like to do or learn in 4-H during the upcoming months. List some of your goals for the year and what plan you have to accomplish your goals. These goals can relate to the 4-H Teen Leadership project or can apply to your overall 4-H involvement.

My Goals for this year	What I need to do to reach this goal
Example: I will chair the fair club booth committee and work with club members to plan our club booth	Talk with club leader, plan committee meetings, write list of things needed, set date to work on club booth, set up club booth for fair

Signatures for Goal Setting:

I will work toward the above goals I have set for myself for the upcoming 4-H year to the best of my ability:

The three most important things I learned

Even if you learned a lot of different things in 4-H, think of what was the most important for you. Then, list the three most important things you learned in this project during the past year in the boxes below. For instance, I learned how to work in partnership with adults, how to work with younger children, how to deal with conflict, etc.

The three most important things I learned in this project during the past year were . . .
1.
2.
3.

Telling my story

Keeping in mind the knowledge and skills you said you learned from the items you checked above, write a story that explains what you gained this past year in 4-H. Use specific examples from your 4-H Teen Leadership project or other 4-H experiences throughout the year that are unique to you whenever possible. Use extra pages if needed. Attach photos or clippings of your teen leadership project or 4-H experiences if possible. Be sure to label them with captions if you do.

4-H is proud of what 4-H members learn and sometimes likes to use excerpts (parts) of stories 4-Hers write in 4-H publicity. If you do not want your information shared, please let us know by checking the boxes below:

Do not use my story for any 4-H publicity.

If you use my story, do not credit my name.
